Who we are

FEdS Associates' Consultancy brings together a unique network of experienced senior consultants who have all held executive and leadership posts in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors across education, business and national policy.

FEdS Associates' Consultancy is part of FEdS Consultancy Limited which was established in 1996 as a specialised membership organisation. It has since grown to occupy a unique niche in the world of education and skills. Its members are blue chip companies, government agencies and educational organisations keen to work together to improve education and skills provision across the UK. FEdS Consultancy's Chief Executive is Rachael Campey.

As members of FEdS, the Associates can provide access to an influential network of people engaged in policy-making at the highest level. In 2010 the FEdS Associates' Consultancy was formed to offer bespoke services to senior and middle management teams working to understand and apply new policy initiatives and their impacts.

What we do

We offer a broad range of technical and professional expertise.
